

Al Jones

I am a long time Oxnard resident of over 50 years. I have served my community as a banker for over 15 years. I retired from the banking industry as a Regional Vice President who managed and protected more than $250 million dollars in bank assets.

Oxnard needs a strong, experienced Treasurer who can expertly manage your tax dollars safely, and without compromise. I promise to communicate directly with department heads within the city to help advance an atmosphere of collaboration and teamwork towards a more unified city.

I am a veteran of the United States Air Force where I proudly served my country with honor. Now it's time to serve my great city in the same manner. I served as co-chair of Oxnard's Homelessness commission for three years. During which I lead our commission in the annual homeless count, as well as feeding the needy at the homeless shelter.

I was selected as the Oxnard Police Activities League's Citizen of the year, the Oxnard Chamber of Commerce Man of the year, and the NAACP Citizen of the year.

I respectfully ask for your vote.
