

Name: Armando Sepulveda

Occupation: Retail Multi Store Manager / Area Manager

Age: 44

Armando Sepulveda was raised in Oxnard, completed schooling from K through 12 grades in Oxnard. Armando Sepulveda graduated from California Lutheran University with a Bachelors Degree in business. All three of the Sepulveda family siblings reside in Oxnard and Sepulveda is tired of seeing young professionals leave the City of Oxnard due to the lack of professional opportunities and the lack of value Oxnard puts on our educational system.

Armando Sepulveda has worked his way up into the top management of Corporate America Business. "A fruitful city must have opportunities for professionals and place education at the top of the city's agenda," states Sepulveda.

Sepulveda's agenda:

The City of Oxnard is a business and its stockholders are its residents, as the Mayor of Oxnard, Armando Sepulveda will manage the city in the best interest of its stockholders, its citizens and community. That is Armando Sepulveda's core beliefs and why Sepulveda is taking the challenge to run for the City of Oxnard Mayor!

Sepulveda's knowledge of business and economics makes him an ideal candidate to become the next Mayor of Oxnard this November 2016.
