CANDIDATE FOR CITY TREASURER CITY OF OXNARD

Name: Jonathan Royas
Occupation: General Manager

Age: 36

Jonathan Royas' relationship with Oxnard is strong, since he and his family work in the community. Jonathan Royas knows hardship, since he had to leave the United States Naval Academy after his first year due to his mother's cancer diagnosis. Jonathan Royas transferred to Claremont McKenna College where he was President of Associated Students of CMC. Because of Jonathan Royas' leadership and knowledge in economics, he became a delegate for the Economic Development and Commerce Conference in China for the County of San Bernardino and City of Ontario.

Jonathan Royas has maintained a career in the business sector, building relationships with school districts, government agencies and business owners while earning his Juris Doctor and serving as VP of the Student Bar Association. He is known as a leader who delivers results.

The United States Naval Academy's motto is "Leaders to Serve the Nation," which combined with his honesty and integrity has inspired Jonathan Royas to run for City Treasurer. Jonathan Royas will bring accountability, fiscal responsibility, accuracy, economic growth and trust to show where our city's funds are going! These characteristics combined with his willingness to serve his community makes him the clear choice.

Jonathan Royas has the experience and knowledge to pull the City of Oxnard out of turmoil and out of the CA State Auditor's hands.
